

The way we see things depends on our viewpoint

The EDDT family was developed with this in mind. Three individual products provide insight from three perspectives: teacher (EDDT), parent (EDDT-PF), and self (EDDT-SR).

Identify youth with emotional disturbance

- Correlates to specific components of the 2002 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations and the 2004 Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).
- Provides a standardized approach to help clinicians obtain a child’s perspective of his or her functioning in IDEA areas.
- Administer and score all three tests 24/7 on PARiConnect. A Multi-Rater Summary Report is also available at no charge for a limited time!
- Free training for the EDDT family of tests is available on our Training Portal.
- Assesses social maladjustment separately from ED.
- Parent and Self-Report forms are available in Spanish.
- Learn more about using all three EDDT tests together in our white paper. Visit parinc.com/EDDT\_white\_paper to view or download.
