

Trainings for Educators, Parents, & Child Abuse Professionals

Navigating the Effects of COVID-19 on Children

Topics for Schools and Educators (90-minutes each)

A Guide to Welcoming Children Back to School: Mitigating the Impact of COVID-19

As we continue to learn the effects of COVID-19 on the physical and mental well-being of children, we must take action to mitigate the negative impact. Regardless of what your district has voted to do, we can help you navigate this in the best way possible.

Online Safety Conversations for Schooling at Home

This concise and effective presentation is for caregivers and professionals who support caregivers. Answering three questions helps build skills while laying a foundation for family discussions and response to online dangers now and in the future.

Mitigating the Impact of COVID-19 as an Adverse Childhood Experience (ACE) With Positive Childhood Experiences

For some children, COVID-19 will be an Adverse Childhood Experience. How can we mitigate risk and lessen the impact of trauma by providing Positive Childhood Experiences?

Enhancing Student Safety During a Pandemic

This training will cover the risks to children and adolescents who may be confined at home with someone who abuses them, strategies for connecting with youth, and preventative measures for adults who may be feeling extreme stress and frustration.

Topics for Prosecutors and MDT Team Members (90-minutes each)

Conducting and Defending a Pandemic-Era Interview

This workshop provides concrete guidance for prosecutors needing to defend the practice should an interview be challenged in court. Prosecutors are also provided a number of strategies in responding to potential defense attacks on a virtual forensic interview or an interview conducted with modifications resulting from the pandemic.

Responding to Child Maltreatment During a Pandemic: 25 Tips for MDTs

This presentation reviews tips for MDTs to employ during a pandemic where victims may no longer have school teachers, faith leaders, or other mandated reporters they can access for help or who may detect a sign of abuse when parents or other family members are the perpetrators.

Still a Priority: Prosecuting Technology-Related Crimes Against Children During a Pandemic

Presented by a former prosecutor, this presentation reviews pertinent challenges, discusses best practices for prosecutorial response, and provides practical guidance to practitioners on the overall investigation and prosecution of technology-facilitated crimes against children.

To schedule a training, please email
suzanne@zeroabuseproject.org or call 651-714-4673